"EDUCATION WATCH"

"This book/CD combo is narrated by blues legend Curtis Salgado, with beautiful music by Philip Pelletier reflecting Tad's musical journey, and five original songs as part of the story. Verne Lindner's light-hearted illustrations fit the mood perfectly. This tale about the celebration of cultural diversity uses music as metaphor, and the message of understanding, acceptance, and respect will resonate with young listeners!"

-SCHOOL LIBRARY JOURNAL

"Perfectly enhanced with the whimsical and colorful artwork of Verne Lindner, "One Night In Frogtown" is no ordinary child's picturebook...Original and superbly entertaining, with child-pleasing songs! A unique and enthusiastically recommended experience for kids and parents!"

-MIDWEST BOOK REVIEW

"Frogtown" combines a colorful book with an equally vibrant read-and-sing-along CD, wherein blues artist Curtis Salgado narrates the story of Tad, a young saxophone player traveling the pond in search of his musical tadpole soul. Little (and big) hipsters, will beg to get up and get grooving; staging the musical in their own ponds at school or at home!"

-THE OREGONIAN BOOK REVIEW

"Frogtown is exactly what's happening today in literacy. It's educational AND fun!"

-SEATTLE CENTRAL LIBRARY CHILDREN'S DEPARTMENT

"An incredible music and reading experience!"

-KRIST NOVOSELIC (NIRVANA)

"A parent's dream...

a kid-friendly story with adult-friendly songs!"

-MUSIC IN THE NORTHWEST

"With its stunning illustrations, hip soundtrack & soulful narration, "Frogtown" is a multi-media tour de force for kids AND grownups. It's something the entire family can rock out to!"

-ANDRE HAGESTAD - EDITOR, Beach Connection Magazine

"A wonderful musical storybook with an A-list cast, from blues legend Curtis Salgado narrating and singing to Emmy-Award winning composer Philip Pelletier!"
